10 ARTISTS, 3 COUNTIES, ONE GREAT EXHIBITION

Wendy Edsall-Kerwin

Ever wonder if there's a common thread connecting artists in a particular region? Sharadin Art Gallery at Kutztown University asked that same question. Their answer is Adjacencies, an exhibition showcasing the work of ten artists from Berks, Lehigh, and Lancaster counties.

Running from September 9th through October 10th, Adjacencies seeks to highlight the richness of artistic practice in the region. The exhibition's artists include photographers, mixed media artists, a printmaker, and textile artists.

An opening reception will be held for Adjacencies on Thursday, September 9th from 4 until 6pm. The Sharadin Art Gallery is located on the Campus of Kutztown University on the corner of College Blvd and W. Main St in Kutztown, PA.
