BIOGRAPHY

Chloé Beaulac is a Franco-Ontarian artist who resides in Montérégie and the Eastern Townships of Québec. She holds a bachelor's degree in Fine Arts from Concordia University (2010), specializing in printmaking. She is a multidisciplinary artist who draws inspiration from printmaking and works in various mediums, including photography, video, drawing, printmaking, painting, installation and sculpture to convey her perception of the world.

Chloe Beaulac has received several awards and distinctions for her work: in 2022 she was a finalist for the Quebec council for the arts award - Montérégie artist of the year. In 2019, the City of Longueuil honored her with the Cultural Ambassador Award for her exceptional achievements. In the same year, she received the Missions photographique des Laurentides prize, jointly awarded by Loto-Québec, Les Rencontres International de la Photographie en Gaspésie and the Centre d'exposition de Val-David. In 2018, she received the Prix relève culture Montérégie – La Fabrique culturelle for her artistic contribution and involvement in Montérégie region. In 2015, she won the Prix Télé-Québec, a joint award from the Contemporary Print Biennial of Trois-Rivières and La Fabrique culturelle for her installation piece entitled Au coeur du Magnétisme.

Beaulac has presented numerous public art projects, solo exhibitions, group exhibitions and artist residencies across Quebec, Canada and abroad. She has developed and produced several projects thanks to the generous support of various organizations like the Canada Council for the Arts, the Québec Council for the Arts, the Longueuil Council for the arts, the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles, as well as Les Offices jeunesse Internationaux du Québec. In addition to her artistic pursuits, Chloé Beaulac also contributes to the cultural field through collaborations with the Ministry of Culture, the City of Montreal and several other cultural centres in and around Quebec.
