It's the most dangerous time
of the year.

If you're a pedestrian, use extra caution this holiday. Use crosswalks, pay attention and always wait for the signal to cross the street.
Don't let a crash shake things up this holiday season.

It's the most dangerous time
of the year.

Wet roads, icy conditions and tons of drivers out shopping—right now there are more hazards all around us. Slow down. Buckle up. Don't let a crash shake things up this holiday season.
