

contents

March/April 2018

Wander

26 UPSTATE STATE OF MIND

Why it's time to weekend in the Catskills.

29 LET'S GET LOST

With paper map and film camera in hand, an AFAR editor sets out on a road trip in Sweden sans tech.

32 MIX

Can you judge a city by its library?

35 THE CONSCIOUS NOMAD

An expert on mindful travel shares tips on how to disconnect with tech and reconnect with the world.

38 PAPER OF RECORD

Capture your travels the old-fashioned way with these stylish writing accessories.

Connect

43 WORKSHOP

France's iconic Vuarnet sunglasses are once again getting their moment in the—ahem—sun.

48 SPIN THE GLOBE

In Armenia, a writer hears heavenly music, discovers soulful architecture, and drinks vodka for breakfast.

16 FROM THE EDITOR

18 FOUNDER'S NOTE

22 CONTRIBUTORS

100 JUST BACK FROM

A honeymoon snorkeling trip in Fiji proves life really is better under the sea.

52 VIEWS FROM AFAR

In remote Micronesia, a Belgian photographer explores the limits of color.

55 FEAST

The one dish you have to eat in Hanoi—and no, it isn't pho.

58 BOOKMARK

Far from the tourist path in New Delhi, an American magician rediscovers his sense of wonder.

63 STAY

A type-A traveler's guide to slowing down.