MEET THE PHOTOGRAPHER

Hi, I'm Lennart!

My pictures are all about beauty, empowerment and style. Capturing stunning images is my passion; it's what gets me up in the morning.

I've photographed everything from models in New York, to beaches in South America, to temples in Bali, to diamonds in Antwerp. Throughout my 15-year career, boudoir shoots have always been a constant. Each and every experience has enriched my craft in its own unique way.

No matter where you are in your journey or what unique milestone you're celebrating, my goal is to guide you through an amazing and unforgettable boudoir experience that makes you feel sexy, empowered and confident.

I live in Antwerp, so I spend most of my downtime chasing the sun with my travel buddy, muse and wife or playing with our goofy French bulldogs. They're the source of all the drive and creativity I bring to my work.
