A Chat With The Editor

TRAVELING is one of the large industries of this era. Millions of people hit the road as soon as the warm weather sets in. They want to get away from their old surroundings; to see—to learn how people live—to meet old and new friends. That crazy feeling in America when the sun is hot on the streets and music comes out of the jukebox or from a nearby funeral, that's what Robert Frank has captured in tremendous photographs taken as he traveled on the road around practically forty-eight states in an old used car (on Guggenheim Fellowship) and with the agility, mystery, genius, sadness and strange secrecy of a shadow photographed scenes that have never been published before. For this he will definitely be hailed as a great artist in his field. After seeing these pictures published in finally for the first time whether a life or is sadder than a coffin. But because he's always taking pictures of jukeboxes and coffins lined up in the streets like the Negro Travel Guide by the United States Bureau of Commerce, a part of those transportation facilities as which bureau has been closed, due to the lack of funds. By being such an important piece of literature, white business has also recognized its value and it is now in use by the Esso Standard Oil Co., the American Automobile Assn. and its affiliate automobile clubs throughout the country, other automobile clubs, air lines, travel bureaus, travelers aid, libraries and thousands of subscribers. Hence we have filled one of our life's ambitions to give the Negro a travel guide that will be of service to him by this method we have established ourselves in the minds of the traveling public. THE GREEN BOOK is known from coast to coast as the source of information for travel and vacations.

MEET NEW YORK'S "NIGHT WATCHMAN"

His name's RAY CARROLL. Instead of a "lantern," he carries a stack of records! In place of a "key," he uses a WMCA microphone; And he makes the "rounds" of New York's air waves from 2:00 to 6:00 A.M. every night but Sunday! To thousands of Metropolitan night owls, Watchman Carroll is a pleasant, happy-go-lucky guy who plays the music they want to hear (including special requests) . . . chats with them on the telephone . . . and, for hours, makes life—and work—seem a little easier and a lot more fun! During his musical "tour of duty," Ray runs the gamut of recorded favorites—from the latest jukebox hits to the tunes on the "all-time great" lists—choosing the discs from his tremendous private collection with a true music-lover's appreciation of what makes the best wee-hour listening. That record collection, incidentally, is the product of more than ten years of late-night musical broadcasting.

Before joining the WMCA staff, Ray was half of the well-known

"Willie & Ray" duo conducting an "After Hours Session" nightly over Station WHOM. Several years with WHOP, Hopkinsville, Kentucky, WBYN and WWRL-New York, and the Armed Forces Radio Service, round out the broadcasting experience of this veteran 34-year-old entertainer. A graduate of Brooklyn's Boys' High and New York University, Ray is married, has a seven-year-old son, and is an enthusiastic golfer when radio isn't crowding his busy schedule. He also does an occasional column for "Rhythm & Blues" magazine and participates in such community activities as the recent series of Vocational Guidance Lectures for young people at one of Manhattan's Community Centers. Needless to add, it's a well-developed sense of humor and a relaxed, easy-does-it nature to keep pace with this disc jockey's schedule and fortunately Ray is blessed with both. Which probably explains why Ray Carroll is one of the few people who can keep New Yorkers awake nights—and make them like it!

EXPLANATION

No travel Guide is perfect! The changing conditions as all know, contribute to this condition, particularly in the United States.

We have given you a selection of listings that you can choose from, under no circumstances do these listings imply that the place is recommended by the publisher nor by firms or places from which they are distributed.

The listings in this Guide are carefully checked and, despite this, past experiences have shown that our minute inspection had failed to notice errors which would be an inconvenience to the traveler. Therefore, at this point may we emphasize that these listings are printed just as they are presented to us and we would like your cooperation and understanding, that the publishers are not responsible for miscalculations or errors after this check has been made.

In order that you won't find any difficulty in finding the kind of business that you are looking for, we have placed the listings under their proper classification in cities and towns.

We appreciate letters from you, our patrons, donating advice and addresses of places not listed herein that would be in accord with our level. We also welcome adverse criticism, in that, it might improve our standards and, in the end, afford more comfortable conditions for you and others.

This Guide Book is not sold on newsstands but in bookstores. They make appropriate gifts to friends and neighbors. Inasmuch as the sale of these Guide Books depend mostly upon the friend-to-friend oral advertising system, it would be particularly interesting if more of our patrons would pass the word along concerning our "Green Book."

For further information concerning this matter you may contact our agents or the publishers: Victor H. Green & Co., 300 West 135th St., Room 215A, New York 30, N. Y.
