CAITLIN CRONENBERG

Caitlin Cronenberg is an award-winning photographer and director whose celebrity portraits and artistic compositions have appeared in a variety of top international publications over the past decade. She began her career shooting countless images for global movie posters while also working as a stills photographer for film and television productions, where she mastered the art of capturing captivating moments as they unfolded. Caitlin is highly sought after for high-end brand campaigns including a slew of special projects and exclusive collaboration series.

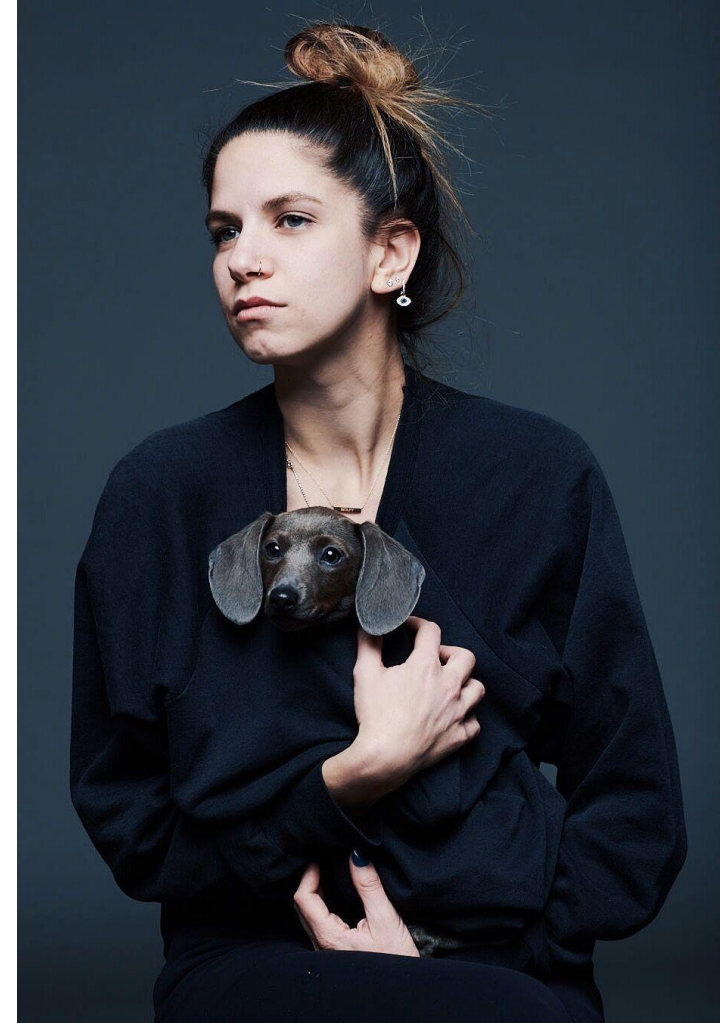

Caitlin's unique use of lighting makes her photographic style highly recognizable while being intensely cinematic. Often inspired by her subjects, she aims to share their stories and beauty with the world given her ability to evoke depth, emotion and storytelling in the works.

Cronenberg shot a 10-day Cannes photo diary for the New York Times, accompanying her father and brother who both had films at the 2012 festival. She is actively involved in the Toronto International Film Festival partnering on a variety of portrait studios. Additionally, Caitlin has debuted in the world of motion as a director with a number of music videos, webisodes, video series, and a short film under her belt.

Caitlin shot the artistic cover album and content for Drake's certified four-time platinum, Grammy Award nominated, 'Views' cementing her as one of the most sought after photographers in Canada, and abroad.

In 2010, Caitlin published her first photography book, POSER, and in 2018 released her second book, THE ENDINGS, which became a national bestseller.

She was awarded the globally acclaimed Canadian Arts and Fashion Award for "Image Maker of the Year" in 2017. With her artistic photography career in full bloom, Caitlin is set to make a global impact in the art industry.

A woman with dark hair is lying on her side in a field of various flowers, including white and pink roses. She is wearing a grey, textured, strapless top and dark pants. A light-colored, textured jacket is draped over her legs. Behind her is a large, tufted, quilted headboard. The ground is covered with a patterned rug and scattered flowers. The overall scene is romantic and artistic.
